WORKSHEET 01

Offer setup

Fill this once before you copy any script. If this page is empty, every message is a costume.

The pain they are tired of [pain]:

Price [price] · Payment link [link]:

What is inside (5 bullets):

Sample I can send without giving the whole product away:

Delivery method (WhatsApp file / Drive / Selar) and access time:

Bonus this week (or write none):

My one next-step word (PAY / SAMPLE / PRICE):

WORKSHEET 02

7-day launch calendar

Write real dates. Tick posted. Count replies. Do not invent a perfect week after the fact.

Day	Job	Posted	Replies	Paid	Note
1	Teaser + reply SAMPLE people
2	Second teaser or who-it-is-for
3	Launch announcement
4	What is inside + pin link
5	Sample reminder + price questions
6	Checkout follow-up (once)
7	Delivery check + ask 2 reviews

Launch week starts on (date):

The one offer I will not change this week:

If nobody pays by Day 7, I will change (offer / who / price / place) because:

WORKSHEET 03

My 8 objection replies

Save eight. Not eighty. Write the exact words you will send. Then use them.

They say	My saved reply (fill your real [price])	Paid?
Last price
Too expensive
I will get back
Can I pay later
I saw it cheaper
Send the file first
How much? then silence
They got rude

DISCOUNT RULES I WILL KEEP

- I can add a small bonus, not slash the price every night.
- I can discount a bundle, not a single cheap item.
- I can give a close-people price once, not every week.
- If I discount, I write the new price here so I do not forget: N_____

Smaller option I can offer instead of begging:

WORKSHEET 04

TikTok to WhatsApp sheet

One video. One offer. One keyword. Write it so you stop improvising in comments.

The video I will push this week (what it shows):

Pinned comment CTA (copy the exact line):

Keyword people must send (PRICE / PAY / CATALOG):

WhatsApp link or wa.me:

Comment reply for 'how much' (one line + WhatsApp):

First WhatsApp message after they arrive:

Follow-up if they go quiet (one message only):

This week's count

Comments I replied · People who landed on WhatsApp · People who paid:

WORKSHEET 05

Daily sales week planner

One post a day. Then reply. Do not post all 50 templates this week.

Day	Post type	Caption I will use (first line)	CTA	DMs	Paid
Mon	Direct offer
Tue	Problem-solution
Wed	Trust / review
Thu	Question
Fri	Soft-sell tip
Sat	Urgency / stock
Sun	Reminder + CTA

The one CTA word this week:

The post I will repeat next week because it got DMs:

WORKSHEET 06

Buyer conversation log

Write the humans. Not vibes. This page tells you which script made money.

Name	From	They asked	Script I used	Next	Paid

From = Status / TikTok / IG / friend. Next = hold / follow-up / close / deliver.

Pattern I noticed this week:

WORKSHEET 07

Payment and delivery checklist

Speed is part of the product. Use this every time money drops.

- ☐ Payment confirmed (screenshot / Selar / alert).
 - ☐ Correct file attached. Not last year's draft.
 - ☐ Start Here instruction included.
 - ☐ I told them what to open first.
 - ☐ If they have trouble: asked for screenshot, sent a second copy, confirmed it opened.
 - ☐ Asked for a short voice note or 2-line review after they used one script.

My delivery message (copy from the book, then write your real version):

If the PDF will not open, I send:

Confidence contract

Read aloud. Sign. This is the deal you keep with yourself when last price arrives at 11pm.

I WILL

Say the real price.
Send one clear next step.
Offer a smaller option before I slash the main price.
Follow up once after I will get back.
Close politely when they are not a buyer.
Deliver the same day payment shows.

I WILL NOT

Beg.
Insult the customer or the cheaper seller.
Lie about stock.
Send eight follow-ups.
Paste my account under a TikTok.
Send the full file because they said let me see.
